Biography

A native of Miami, Florida, Priscilla began her music career at the tender age of 10, mesmerizing church-goers with her strong multi dimensional voice.

Recognized as a vocal prodigy, she received formal training by Dr. Roscoe Speed, renowned vocal coach, music director, composer and mentor in Miami, Florida. She went on to be named Outstanding Music Student two consecutive years; nominated and crowned Home Coming Queen; and awarded a full music scholarship all while attending American High School in Miami, Florida.

Priscilla's spirit of excellence and commitment to service continued at Miami Dade Community College and subsequently enlisted in the United States Armed Forces. This service to her country afforded her the opportunity to travel globally and consume the rhythms and sounds of other cultures. Community service was discovered as a passion and positioned her on an advocacy quest for artistic mental health and wellness, hereby birthing and unfolded the Aspire to Greatness journey.

It's her belief, executing a holistic approach and perspective is an effective winning tool and further equips one to face and manage the many challenges relating to the human experience. Life is design for us to live the best life NOW!
